Wizard101 for Windows.

Massively multiplayer online role-playing games have come a long way. Franchises like World of Warcraft and Final Fantasy continue to improve their graphics, story lines, and gameplay. Their growing fan base only proves their lasting power. But, there comes a time when you want a break from the latest advances in MMORPGs, and enjoy the ones that made your childhood great. Wizard101 was one of those free-to-play MMORPG back in the day. The game swept millions of fourteen-year-olds off their feet, making the most average day into a magical one. Now it's time to accept the mission once again and go save the Spiral galaxy from enemies. Ready?

One with the universe.

Logging into Wizard101 will make the kid in you leap for joy. Called to be a wizard by Merle Ambrose, the Headmaster of Ravenwood Academy, you undergo a complete character customization process. You can choose the standard hair, apparel, and skin tones found in other fantasy-based online games. What sets it apart is the personality test. Based on your answers to the questions, you will be sorted into one of the seven schools of magic, namely, Fire, Ice, Life, Myth, Balance and Death. It's not set in scrolls, though. The gameplay will show you each school's specialty so you can choose the one that you prefer.

Much like your character, the graphics are suited for kids 13 and below. The cartoon style, slick animations, and bright colors will bring you back to your teen years. But, it's not to say that advanced gamers won't be challenged by the city's attackers.

Wizard-in-training

The gameplay mechanics can be challenging to manage but easy-to-follow. Expect turn-based combat where points are equivalent to your lifeline. Casting powerful spells during a boss battle will require more points, while a low damage-valued spell will cost you nothing. So, tread carefully! Another great feature is the Treasure Cards. These are one-use spells that are at the library and arranged in your deck.

The game's tension rises during a duel with MOBs. Once they enter your aggro radius, the two of you square off at opposite ends. See the spells chosen by each player and the NPCs they're targeting. The fight is on. Work your magic with the spell you select, or discard and change it during your 30-sec turn.

No pain, no gain.

Loots are at stake whenever you play, making winning all the more important. Wearables, treasure cards, and even gold can all be possibly found in the pile. You can also earn more of these valued goods when you complete a quest or accept mini-games. Take advantage of these opportunities in order to collect powerful spell cards and add them to your deck.

You're in (parental) control.

KingsIsle did develop this game for children, which may explain the absurd amount of in-game purchases. You can play the game as a subscriber or use the 'free-to-play' mode. F2Ps will have to purchase access to different areas of content using Crowns or the game's currency. Subscribers, on the other hand, can unlock all playable worlds, compete in ranked PvP matches, collect gold in tournaments, and post on the Wizard101 Message Board. If you don't see yourself playing this game often, then paying for features will be the best option for you.

Where can you run this program?

If you're ready to put on your wizarding hat, here are Wizard101's system requirements.

Is there a better alternative?

The Elder Scrolls Online is the grown-up version of Wizard101. Developed by ZeniMax Online Studios, the MMORPG merges the unmatched exploration of rich worlds the franchise is known for with the vastness and interactive aspects of an online game. This version of TES is set a millennium before the events of Skyrim, making it a gateway to console and PC titles. In fact, you can even play TESO on your Windows, Mac, Playstation 4, and Xbox One.

Our take.

Wizard101 is not like massively multiplayer online role-player games today; you're all the better for it.

Should you download it?

Do download this if you like games with a youthful, colorful comic-style environment.

How Can I Play Wizard 101 Without Downloading?

The only way you would be able to play Wizard101 without actually downloading it yourself would be if you could play the game on someone else's computer who has previously downloaded the game. It is unfortunately not possible to play the game if you are not connected to the internet as it is an online game.

If you think of Wizard101 like a virtual world video game that can be downloaded from the internet rather than purchased at a store. To experience the 3D graphics and good game play speed, the initial game must be downloaded to your computer. To experience the ever-expanding and changing worlds and to socialise with other players, your computer download must also be connected to the internet. You will be able to start playing the game within about two minutes of logging in for the first time. The rest of the game will continue to download in the background and will be transparent to you.

If you are having trouble connecting to Wizard101 there could be a few things that could cause this. Firstly check your internet connection as if you are not connected, as mentioned before, the game will not work. Secondly make sure the Wizard101 site is still live. Sometimes they need to bring Wizard101 down to make repairs. Announcements about these downtimes can be found on the window that appears when you run Wizard101.

Another reason the game may not be working is if your anti-virus and firewall are blocking the programme. Therefore you may need to add Wizard101 to the allowed list or lower the access settings.

If you have tried all the above and the game still will not work you can contact Mr Lincoln at the bottom of the Help & Support page on the site. Click the "Contact Us" tab and Mr. Lincoln will follow up to troubleshoot the issue further.
