Jane Eyre Review:

Jane Eyre contains various elements of social criticism, having a sense of Christian morality on its base. It is regarded as a novel ahead of its time because of the story's individualistic character and how the story of the novel contains elements of feminism, religion, sexuality, and class. Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice and Jane Eyre are considered as one of the best romantic novels of all time. According to experts and scholars, Jane Eyre is the best work from Brontë in his life.
