11 Best Kdrama Sites that offer Kdramas with Eng Sub Free:

1. Dramacool – The Best Site to Watch and Download Korean Dramas with Eng Sub, Hands Down!

Dramacool is no stranger to most Kdrama fans. Besides the large library of Kdrama resources, Dramacool also hosts a great deal of TV shows and movies from other Asian countries. To my knowledge, Dramacool is the fastest to update new dramas and episodes than the rest sites. The video content is multi-server sourced and downloadable. The sub is also of high quality. Moreover, Dramacool does not use any ads or pup-ups on its site.

2. KissAsian - Where You Find the Largest Collection of Kdramas with Eng Sub Free Online.

KissAsian enjoys large popularity among numerous Kdrama lovers for it has a huge collection of Korean drama and movie resources and provides good quality English subtitles as well. What I like about KissAsian is its most active Disqus place that us users can discuss the plots, the characters, and other things with each other freely and effectively. The videos are also prepared in multi-server sources. But you have to turn off the ad-blocker to play the video.

3. Dramanice – A Dramacool Alternative to Watch Korean Drama Online with English Subtitle.

Dramanice is pretty much Dramacool under a different skin. It has the same drama database as Dramacool and you can free download Korean dramas with Eng subs too. Yet one problem that exists with Dramanice is that it changes its domain frequently and it can be hard to find the right site.

4. (Down) GoodDrama - Neat Place to Watch Korean Dramas with Eng Sub Online.

GoodDrama is also an ideal place to start your Kdrama journey as it archives a good library of Kdrama resources with good quality English subtitles. Besides Korean dramas, it also offers English-subbed Chinese and Japanese dramas. And the single-paged design of GoodDrama makes all the titles very accessible. Yet it has a slow update. Another flipside of this site is that the video is cut and streamed in four parts, which will lead to inconsistent viewing experience.

5. ViewAsian – An Amazing Platform to Watch English-subbed Asian Dramas with Gorgeous Video Quality.

ViewAsian, as its name suggests, is a site for viewing Asian dramas. But you'll eventually find this site focusing more on Kdramas, though tons of English-subbed Japanese and Chinese dramas are also presented. The content is streamed in multiple servers and with high quality subtitles. The download option is also available for free.

6. Kocowa - Place to Watch HD Kdramas with English Subtitles Legally.

Kocowa is a legal streaming site dedicated to distributing Korean content, including Korean variety shows, Kpop, and Korean dramas with good quality English subtitles, to the American audience. It is actually a paid service yet offers some good dramas completely free. And the content in the TASTE24HR section provides you the latest updates of the hit shows to watch free within 24 hours. Another benefit of this site is that it presents 1080P content with easy-to-follow subtitles. Yet Kocowa is only available in North and South America.

7. NewAsianTV – A New Place to Keep Up with the Latest Korean Drama with English Subtitles Free.

NewAsianTV makes another great site to watch Korean drama online with Eng subs. It does not have an extensive library of Kdrama resources like that of Dramacool, but it covers most of the trending Kdramas and Kshows, and brings them to you in high resolution and with good quality subtitles. And playing these videos is easy without any ads disturbing. The biggest demerit of NewAsianTV is that its video player crashes often.

8. Viki - Another Ideal Site to Watch English-Sub Korean Drama Legally and Safely.

Viki is the first to spring to mind when thinking of a safe place to stream Korean dramas. Yet it is not Kdrama-centered, and you won't be so lucky to watch any of the latest or popular Kdramas as you want. On the bright side, all the content on Viki is legal and you are reassured to watch Korean movies online free with English subtitles as well as in other languages. (The subbers from the Viki community have done their best to supply you with high quality subtitles in multiple languages). The downside is that you will get annoyed by ads if you are a free user.

9. DramaHood – Watch Kdramas of the 10s - 20s with English Subtitle.

DramaHood is an entirely Kdrama-focused site where you can find plenty of high-resolution Korean dramas with English subtitles for free watching. Yet it has a slow update. But the high quality subtitles for your wanted shows are worth the waiting. The download option is also available and easy to access on DramaHood.

10. (Down) Dramago – A Nice Alternative to GoodDrama.

Dramago resembles GoodDrama in its content providing. You can also find the latest popular Korean dramas with English subtitles most easily here. Yet loads of ads placed on Dramago makes itself inferior to GoodDrama. Apart from that, it is still a good place to watch Korean dramas with Eng sub online free here.

11. AsianCrush – Trusted Site to Watch Korean Drama Online with English Subtitles.

AsianCrush is another legal place to watch Asian dramas and movies free online. You can access freely its drama library and enjoy instant updates. The unfavorable side of AsianCrush is that its content is only available across North America.
