Tiencha.

Tiencha (ヤム飯, Yam-han) is a fictional character from Dragon Ball Z: Budokai 2 and is the result of Yamcha and Tien Shinhan performing the Fusion Dance. He is never seen or mentioned in the Dragon Ball anime/manga. If the player performs the Fusion Dance incorrectly, the fusion results in a skinny Tiencha. His name is formed by combining Tien and Yam cha .

In the Japanese Dragon Ball Z: Budokai 2 , Tiencha is a usable team character in the 10th stage (Neko Majin Z stage), and there is also a small dialogue at the beginning of the stage where Tien and Yamcha fuse, with Goku acting surprised on the side. In this stage the player can only fight with Goku and Tiencha and must compete against: Saibamen, Nappa, Raditz, Recoome, Dabura, Captain Ginyu and Kuriza.

Contents.

Appearance.

Tiencha's suit is the same as the suit that Gotenks wears. Like all Fusion Dance characters, Tiencha wears a blue vest, around his waist he wears a green sash, and he wears white silky pants, dark shoes, and black wristbands. His hair style is a mix of Tien's baldness on the front, and Yamcha's spiky hair on the back. Also he has Tien's third eye and Yamcha's facial scars.

Interestingly Tiencha's third eye on his forehead is rotated at 180° when compared with Tien's eye.

Forms and transformations.

Tiencha as he appears in Budokai 2 in Story Mode.

Tiencha doesn't have any transformations but just like every Fusion Dance character he can become fat or skinny by making a mistake in the performance of the Fusion Dance, leading to a failed fusion.

Skinny Tiencha.

Tiencha achieves this state when both Yamcha and Tien stretch their hands when saying "HAA" in the last stage of the Fusion Dance. In this stage, Tiencha can still fly, but is unable to do any special attacks and can only use punches, kicks and simple ki attacks and even this costs him a lot of his energy. After a combo attack he coughs and if he tries a special attack like the Dodohameha he simply coughs.

DOWNLOAD Budokai AF.

In the rar archive (you'll need winrar to extract it) you'll find the tutorial on how to burn it, as well as the DVD cover and label, besides the files that are needed to MOD your Budokai 3 of course.

This is not a stand alone, you need the original Budokai 3 to play it (possibly PAL version, which could work anyway on NTSC PS2 using Swapmagic 3.8 (also 3.6 is fine)).

I know, there are still details that could have been fixed, but so far I'm satisfied, we will eventually release a perfect version once we will be able to modify 3d models (if we will ever be) using 3dstudio max.

This is the list of the playable chars:

Besides duels, also story mode has been adapted, there are new menus, new musics and sounds, a party for your eyes, and especially our team's, seeing our characters taking life in this game.

Characters that you'll soon come to meet in our DBAF fancomic that will begin to be released soon.

Be sure to read the readme file carefully, otherwise you won't burn the game correctly, pay attention to the DATA_ENG copy with the creation of DATA_ITA (or other default language) to make the menus to be viewed correctly.

Ask Skazza for troubles with the savegame, I dunno how to help ya there.

After this long description here you get finally the download link:

For the ones who might got the game in alternative ways burn also those files in the main directory (not in USR), otherwise the alternative costumes may not work: <http://www.mediafire.com/?ev0jcsnthbw>.

In 2 days a video of the definitive version is coming.
