Mr Eazi – Rotate.

The Nigerian multihyphenate, Mr Eazi, behind a number of Afropop hits like, ‘Pour Me Water’, ‘Skin Tight’ featuring Efyā and ‘Leg Over’, experiments Afro-Reggae and deliver Rotate (freestyle).

Mr Eazi – Rotate.

Mr Eazi came through with a dope freestyle titled ‘Rotate’ to make the gyal dem whine!

As produced by OteeBeatz this freestyle is a cool Dancehall jam with lovely melody and catchy lyrics.

Mr Eazi is one of Nigeria’s biggest global superstars and the founder of emPawa Africa and Jamaica’s Popcaan is a global dancehall superstar who released his first two albums on Mixpak and is now continuing his domination with OVO Sound. Together, they advance a long simmering cross-continental dialogue between afro-pop and dancehall that continues to produce gems. It’s a sensibility that is united by Mixpak label boss Dre Skull–known for his songwriting and production work with Popcaan, Vybz Kartel, Drake, Wizkid, Jorja Smith, Davido and more.

He recently worked with Jamaica’s favourite Dancehall act, Popcaan and American record producer, Dre Skull. and delivered the new song ‘Sekkle & Bop’.

On ‘Sekkle & Bop’, Dre Skull cooks up the kind of bashment riddim that has always resonated on dancefloors around the world. Minimal, with soundsystem ready low end and anchored by an earworming flute melody, it serves as the foundation for Mr Eazi and Popcaan to take control. Both vocalists ride the riddim with signature charisma and ease–effortlessly trading flows that conjure up timeless dancehall classics, commanding dancers and continuously building the energy.

The Rotate (Freestyle) below is also another riddim, A reggae, dancehall, calypso, soca, grime, and reggaeton that would get you to the dance floor.
