It is tough to filter out the best Minecraft skins when there exist various good skins for Minecraft by thousands of users/designers. You will probably find a ton of new Minecraft skins every day around.

Being a sandbox game, Minecraft provides an incredible experience. However, getting one of the best Minecraft skins could make a huge difference while playing the game – especially for PvP sessions. The Minecraft skins you choose could give you advantages over your opponent. You will find a lot of perfect free Minecraft skins around; time is all you need to filter them out!

20 Best Minecraft Skins that are Really Cool.

To save your time, we have listed out some of the best Minecraft skins, or you can utilize a Minecraft skin editor to customize it further.

Keeping the advantages of Minecraft skins aside, let us take a look at 20 of the best Minecraft skins available out there.

Superhero Minecraft Skins.

If you like superheroes, living the experience with your Minecraft gaming character should be a bonus for you. Your Minecraft avatar would look superbly stunning when utilizing some of the best superhero Minecraft skins available. While there are a lot of superheroes, we picked only four of the favorites, they are:

1. Iron Man.

Wouldn't you be hyped to have one of the richest superheroes as a Minecraft gaming character? Of course, you must be! Although it would not give you combat benefits, it will still look powerful than any other normal Minecraft characters out there.

2. The Incredible Hulk.

Did I mention something about power? Well, the Hulk skin for Minecraft is all about smashing the blocks! Well, not exactly, but you can easily scare off the enemies in PvP mode. To clear some confusions, we would like to mention that this Minecraft skin does not make you look bigger in size. However, you will notice Hulk's mouth opening and closing as you navigate your mouse up and down.

3. Wonder Woman.

Too much of boy stuff? Rejoice, beautiful ladies and girls! You've got a pretty wonder woman Minecraft skin to complement your sandbox world. Similar to other Minecraft skins, you don't get combative advantages with this skin for Minecraft but no one messes around with Wonder Woman, eh?

4. Deadpool.

How on earth can someone forget Deadpool? The Deadpool skin for Minecraft is one of the most loved Minecraft skins available. Just like the Movie, you will easily grab the attention of your fellow Minecraft users while wandering around.

Unique Minecraft Skins.

Unique Minecraft skins could come with an interesting idea. So, it has to be a custom-made character or just creating a skin without thinking about a thing!

We picked 2 of the most favorite unique Minecraft skins we could find:

5. The Great Red Gumball Machine.

When you look like a gumball machine, it's easy to get attention. Also, you would not believe me (if not experience), that this Minecraft skin offers camouflage advantages. No one would even know you are there! One would just ignore you by thinking of you as a peculiar object!

6. Ice Princess.

The Ice Princess is a beautiful looking Minecraft gaming character. If you are a girl or simply looking for a pretty Minecraft skin that gets attention more than Deadpool, Ice Princess is the way to go!

7. Pencil.

With Pencil skin for Minecraft, you are not a character here! You are a creative tool! You can just stand still to flaunt your design!

8. King.

If there's a beautiful looking Minecraft skin for a lady, we have a handsome skin for guys as well! With this applied, you reflect a finer personality with a good look and responsibility.

Game Character Minecraft Skins.

The advantages of Minecraft skins include the ability to bring other game characters back to life here. One such gaming character you will surely want:

9. Mario.

Isn't Super Mario the most popular gaming character on the earth? You will surely root for this character's skin in a classic environment like Minecraft. You can be lively and playful after you apply this Minecraft skin to your character!

10. Tetris.

Tetris is the best-selling game in the history! Isn't it your favorite? Well, you can completely transform yourself into a collection of Tetris patterns while looking cool at the same time. It's a shiny skin for Minecraft indeed!

Monster Minecraft Skins.

Do you think that the superhero skins weren't sufficient to scare away your PvP opponents? OK! I'll insist on trying monster Minecraft skins to scare them away! Trust me, you would not want Justin Bieber as one of the monstrous Minecraft skin! (Sorry Bieber fans – he has been listed already!)

Well, possibly, scare yourself as well!

11. Ender Warlord.

Ender Warlord is a dangerous looking Minecraft character that might trick your opponents that you have some super powers with invincibility.

12. Ender Dragon.

Deriving its existence from the character above, it is a more interactive skin for Minecraft. The head glows according to your mouse navigation and the environment you are in. It might look dangerous at times and very cool at others!

13. Cthulhu.

Cthulhu is one of the dangerous sea monster skin available for Minecraft. It reflects a badass personality in the Minecraft world. Could you modify it with a Minecraft skin editor for some interesting color shades or eyes?

How To Install Skins And Texture Packs On Minecraft Windows 10 UWP.

The Windows 10 Minecraft version supports skins and texture packs like its Java counterpart. Modding the look of Minecraft is something users love to do and there are texture packs that can dramatically change how the game looks. Here's how you can install skins and texture packs on Minecraft Windows 10 UWP.

SPOILER ALERT : Scroll down and watch the video tutorial at the end of this article.

Compatible Packs & Skins.

Before you install skins and texture packs on Minecraft Windows 10 UWP, it is important to know that the packs for the Java version are not compatible with the UWP version. Unfortunately, this means a good portion of some of the best, free packs cannot be used with the UWP app. It's yet another reason that more users stick to the Java version.

To find compatible packs, check the usual repositories and read their descriptions. If a pack states that it will work on the Windows 10 version, you can download it and try installing it. Skins are just PNG files so you will not have any trouble finding them for the Windows 10 version.

Minecraft Windows 10 Game Folder.

Assuming you've found a texture pack that is compatible with the Windows 10 version, here's how you can install it. The pack most likely came as a zipped file. Extract it to your desktop.

Next, open the following location in File Explorer.

Texture Packs.

The texture pack that you've extracted goes into the folder named 'Resource_packs'. It is one of the folders present in the above location. Paste the extracted folder here and Minecraft will be able to access it.

Next, you need to enable the texture pack. Open Minecraft and click Settings. Scroll down the left column, and click on Global Resources. Here, you will see a list of active, and available texture packs and it should include the one you moved to the resource_packs folder.

Select it, and click the Plus button to enable it. At any given time, you can have more than one texture pack enabled.

If a texture pack doesn't appear, it's likely incompatible with this version of Minecraft.

Skins.

Find and download a skin for Minecraft. It's going to download as a single PNG file. In some cases there may be more than one PNG file and each file will be a different variation of the same skin. For example, different colors of the same skin.

You can save the PNG file anywhere but it's a good idea to place it somewhere it won't accidentally be deleted.

Open Minecraft and click the little wirehanger icon under your avatar on the start screen. This will take you to the customize skin screen. In the Default box, click the avatar outline, and click the 'Choose New Skin' button in the Custom box.

Minecraft Forums.

What is the point in the skins folder? can I change my skin?

In response to both of you, don't delete it or mess with it. Basically, it contains skins for mobs, not players. The folder contains the files that mobs use for their appearances, so don't touch them unless you're making a resource pack.

Question: would it hurt my game if I zipped the files together? It takes my anti-malware stuff 20 to 30 minutes to only do minecraft, and zipping the files will probably make the anti malware run faster. Would it work? thanks.

Same for me, it is a bit annoying. Also, if I could use a zip. it would be more secure than just telling my antivirus to skip that area.

This is what I do, is that I made a Minecraft skin folder on my desk top put all my skins in there. Then at log in screen it has the skin changer then I just have path set for desk top. Then there is space in your mine craft folder too, if have on your desk top can have sub folder for holidays and stuff to what you want to make it. This is just a thought.

If you are talking about the folder located at `.minecraft/assets/skins`, that is just a cache of all player skins that have been downloaded, including your own skins (I only see a single skin, my own, in this folder, saved using an encoded name) and everybody else on multiplayer (so if you play online a lot it can get very large).

Also, it is perfectly safe to delete the contents, and otherwise they have no effect on the game itself; if you want to actually change any in-game textures you want to make a resource pack and directly changing the game assets is not supported and the launcher will simply redownload any files that you do try to change:

TheMasterCaver's First World - possibly the most caved-out world in Minecraft history - includes world download. TheMasterCaver's World - my own version of Minecraft largely based on my views of how the game should have evolved since 1.6.4. Why do I still play in 1.6.4?
