Quick Word About Torrenting

Warning & Disclaimer: While torrenting is legal, downloading copyrighted content isn't. Therefore, VPNAnalysis.com doesn't condone downloading illegal content.

Unfortunately, while the BitTorrent protocol is perfect for sharing content, it is not private!

It is therefore important to protect yourself with a VPN when downloading from the websites listed below. A VPN will hide your real IP and encrypt your traffic. Check out the best VPN for torrent guide, or alternatively go straight to NordVPN.

Best Pirate Bay Alternatives.

1. ExtraTorrent.

ExtraTorrent is a great "drop-in replacement" to TPB that indexes all kinds of torrents, including movies, games, applications, music, books, and more.

Although not as good as TBP's, it has an active community that regularly comments on the torrents. This provides invaluable insights into how good the torrent links are, the quality of downloads, whether they contain any viruses, etc. On the whole, a fantastic alternative to The Private Bay.

2. 1337x.

Another drop-in replacement to TPB, 1337x hosts links to all kinds of files. It is also very smart looking and has an active community that comments on torrents.

Interestingly, 1337x allows you to stream video torrents if you sign-up for a service called FastPlayz. We would prefer to stick to regular torrent downloading, though, as we have no idea how much FastPlayz can be trusted.

3. RARBG.

RARBG started off as a Bulgarian torrent site, but now they operate from Amsterdam. They index every type of torrent, making it suitable for all users. It also has a lively, up-to-date community. It's still rough around the edges, but there is plenty on offering here.

4. YTS.ag (YIFY)

It is our understanding that the current YTS website has very little to do with the original legendary YTS/YIFY team, who have now disbanded. It is, however, the spiritual successor, and continues the YIFY tradition of offering high quality but low bit rate rips of the all latest movies. It also appears to host the full back catalog of original YTS/YIFY rips.

5. Dirty Torrents.

This is a meta-search engine for torrents. Rather than hosting links itself, it searches other torrent sites for links to the files you want. If a particular torrent is found on more than one site, you can choose which site to visit to download it from. Dirty Torrents is itself fast and ad-free, although the sites it links to may not be.

6. Popcorn Time.

If you want to stream movies or TV shows, though, Popcorn Time is a slick free and open source BitTorrent-based desktop and mobile app that streams video content smoothly and without buffering on even modest internet connections.

7. Torrentz2.

Torrentz2 is the new and improved version of Torrentz.eu. While it's not related to the original project, it's a fantastic successor. It's a great meta-search engine that allows you to search for all kinds of torrents from over 60 different torrent sites.

8. Lime Torrents.

Lime Torrents has a huge library consisting of movies, games, TV shows, and much more. It has a great interface and memorable branding. There are still some improvements required, but a wholesome torrent browsing site nonetheless.

9. iDope.

iDope is a relative newcomer to the industry, having only launched in 2016. However, it's quickly rising in popularity due to its user-friendliness. Furthermore, it can also be accessed on the dark web and comes with a Chrome plugin and an Android App! These fantastic features are something that most other sites don't provide and definitely sets iDope apart.

Quick History of The Pirate Bay.

The Pirate Bay was founded in 2003 and has been operating ever since then. Over its 15 years of service, it's seen its fair share of troubles.

As expected, it's had multiple raids on its server locations. Most notably in 2006 and in 2013. In both instances, the website was back up within a couple of days. As expected, both of these were due to privacy and copyright issues. While there have been legal attempts to close the site down, none of it has been successful.

Unsurprisingly, there have also been hacking attempts, DDoS attacks, technical issues, and technical issues. However, as with legal issues, none of these have closed The Pirate Bay down for good.

If you'd like to learn more about The Pirate Bay and its long history, then Wikipedia is a great place to start.

Alternatives to The Pirate Bay Recap.

Whether TPB is down, or not, the above sites are great Pirate Bay alternatives.

If you think we've missed a useful site, then let us know in the comments below.

Handguns.

Two Ruger KP94 handguns are carried by private detective Andre Shame (Keenen Ivory Wayans) in the opening hotel shootout. It is possible that these are also P93s, either way, both came out in 1994, so they would have been brand new at the time of the film's release. It is entirely possible that these are "hero guns", supplied directly to the production by a firearm company to promote their new product. Something similar occurred with the SIG-Sauer P226 in 1985's Rambo: First Blood Part II.

Beretta 950 Jetfire.

A Beretta 950 Jetfire is held by Peaches (Jada Pinkett Smith) on the limo driver.

Beretta 92FS.

The Beretta 92FS is used by Captain Nunez (Gregory Sierra) and a henchman.

Glock 17.

The Glock 17 is held by the Mob Boss (John Capodice) in the opening shootout. Several gangsters also pull Glockes on Shame.

Willey Magnum

A Willey Magnum is used by Shame (Keenen Ivory Wayans), notably in the final mall shootout. It is first seen among the handguns in his armory, and is featured on the film's poster.

Smith & Wesson Model 66.

Ernesto Mendoza (Andrew Divoff) uses a Smith & Wesson Model 66 with a 2.5" snub-nosed in the club shootout. Shame also has a similar snub-nosed Model 66 in his armory. It is likely the same gun.

Smith & Wesson Model 19.

All of mall security officers appear carry Smith & Wesson Model 19's.

Ruger Redhawk.

A Ruger Redhawk with rubber Pachmayr grips and a 4-inch barrel can be seen hanging in Shame's armory. Strangely, it looks like the sights have been completely removed. It is entirely possible that this is the same exact gun seen in Streets of Fire.

Colt Python.

A 6" barreled, stainless steel Colt Python with black rubber Pachmyr Presentation combat grips is seen hanging in Shame's armory.

American Derringer Model 1.

The compact American Derringer Model 1 is used by Shame when he confronts Mendoza (Andrew Divoff) at the club.

Intratec TEC-38 Over Under Pistol.

An Intratec TEC-38 Over Under Pistol is seen in Shame's armory next to the Wildey.

Colt Gold Cup National Match.

A blued Colt Gold Cup National Match is used by Luis (Gary Cervantes) during the chase.

Colt Gold Cup National Match Enhanced.

A stainless Colt Gold Cup National Match Enhanced is used by Ernesto Mendoza (Andrew Divoff) in the mall shootout to threaten Peaches (Jada Pinkett Smith).

SIG-Sauer P225.

The SIG-Sauer P225 is the sidearm carried by Sonny Rothmiller (Charles Dutton).

LASERAIM 1911 Series III pistol.

A pair of LASERAIM 1911 Series III pistols fitted with laser sights are wielded by Shame in the mall shootout. Peaches is also seen using the pistol.

Colt Officers ACP.

Angela (Salli Richardson) is seen pulling a hidden Colt Officer's ACP attached her bra strap.

Smith & Wesson 5904.

Two early model Smith & Wesson 5904s are seen hanging on the top row of Shame's armory.

Walther PPK/S.

Sub-machine guns.

Cobray M11/9.

The Cobray M11/9 is used by Chun Yung Fat (Craig Ryan Ng) in the opening hotel shootout.

Calico M950A.

The tactical operatives who burst through the mall's skylight are armed with Calico M950A SMG's.

Shotguns.

Winchester 1300 Defender.

A silver finished Winchester 1300 Defender fitted with a pistol grip is used by the Mob Boss's thug (Sven-Ole Thorsen) and then the Mob Boss himself in the hotel shootout.

Rifles.

Colt Sporter 1 Carbine.

A Colt Sporter 1 Carbine with an 11.5" barrel and Colt scope on the carry handle is held by a tactical operative before being taken by a bungee jumping Shame.

Other.

Shame's Armory.

Shame keeps an armory of handguns: a Wildey Magnum, two Smith & Wesson 5904 pistols, a Colt Python revolver with 6" barrel, a pair of Ruger KP94 pistols, a Smith & Wesson Model 10 or 13 revolver in .38 Special or .357 Magnum, two Colt National Match or Gold Cup .45 ACP pistols with muzzle brake barrel bushings, a Ruger Redhawk .44 Magnum revolver with 4" barrel, a pair of LASERAIM Series III pistols and a Smith & Wesson Model 66 .357 Magnum revolver with 2.5" barrel.

1 Oh, here we go. - Housekeeping! - Can you spell "Do not disturb"? Can you spell Lysol? You better check your pulse, you might be dead. Housekeeping! Well! Work him, girl! Housekeeping! Get rid of her. Hey, hey, hey, hey! Good day, gentlemen. Nice and easy, nobody move. One by one, put your guns on the table, nice and slow. - What do you want? - I called the Psychic Hotline today. The lady told me I could find wealth and happiness here. I'll be damned, she was right. One day, we will meet again. Next time, bring some breath mints. - It's for you. - Say "Ah". Aaaa! Don't act like it's your first time. Shame? Yo, Shame, you got company, and lots of it. Up the stairs and east and west elevators. I'll have a car on the side of the building. Good looking-out. If you need back-up, I got my .22 and my stun gun. We can wreck sh*t! Shame! You.
